

Lighthouse Financial Advice rebrands to Quilter Financial Advisers

The rebrand.

The Lighthouse Financial Advice brand you will be familiar with is rebranding to Quilter Financial Advisers on 16 October 2023.

Why is Lighthouse Financial Advice rebranding?

Quilter acquired Lighthouse Financial Advice in 2019. The Lighthouse Financial Advice brand has continued to operate since then. However, Quilter has decided now is the right time to rebrand.

New brand, same trusted financial advice.

Other than the brand, nothing else is changing. You will still receive the same trusted financial advice from a nationwide team of experts.

This rebrand will see no change to the services provided to the organisations we work with.

How can Quilter Financial Advisers help?

We're here to support you with financial advice you can trust.
