

Boundless Photography Competition Terms & Conditions

- The competition is open to Boundless members over the age of 18, except employees and their immediate families of Boundless, its agents or anyone professionally connected to the promotion. Entrants must be resident in the UK (including CI and IoM and Northern Ireland). Boundless reserves the right to verify the eligibility of all entrants.
- Boundless will not accept responsibility for entries lost or delayed in the World Wide Web.
- Boundless reserves the right to use the names of winners and photographs (if taken) in any publicity.
- All entries must be the original work of the entrant and must not infringe the rights of any other party. The entrants must be the sole owner of copyright in all photographs entered and must have obtained permission of any people featured in the entries or their parents/guardians if children under 16 are featured. Further, entrants must not have breached any laws when taking their photographs. Images may be digitally enhanced to remove spots or scratches, but not manipulated.
- By entering the competition all entrants grant to Boundless the right to publish and exhibit their photographs in print, on their respective websites or in any other media. No fees will be payable for any of the above uses. While we make every effort to credit photographers, including in printed reproductions of their work, we cannot guarantee that every broadcast use of the photographs will include photographers' names. The copyright of the photographs remains with the individual entrant.
- Entrants whose photographs are one of the finalists also agree to take part in post-competition publicity.
- Entrants must not be professional photographers and, for the purposes of this competition, a professional photographer will be considered to be someone who makes more than half their annual income from the sale of their photographs.
- By entering, entrants will be deemed to have agreed to be bound by these rules and Boundless reserves the right to exclude any entry from the competition at any time and in its absolute discretion if Boundless has reason to believe that an entrant has breached these rules.
